What's to be said?

The plaques, people and possibilities got together at First Methodist Fellowship Hall Tuesday night.

It was inspiring to see Mrs. Triggs win the McCullin Award. She is rare people.

107-107-107

We sense a maturer note in the attitude about boosting Cameron.

Its problems are soluble, with dry weather some part water soluble, but not vastly different from other Cen-Tex towns.

They merely require constant confrontation. A charge may attain some heroic ground, but without softening up with probing analysis, like an artillery concentration, the waste in effort and time is horrendous.

Services Set Friday For County Pastor William Angell, 83

Rev. William Oscar Angell, 83, retired Baptist minister, died early Tuesday morning following an extended illness.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Friday in the First Baptist Church, Cameron, with Rev. J. E. Lafferty officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Rev. Angell had been a pastor in rural Baptist churches throughout the county including the Rice, Liberty, New Salem, Post Oak, and Black Jack Baptist churches. He also has served as supply minister for the Battetown Baptist Church in Cameron. He was born near Ben Arnold, September 14, 1883.

He is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Homer Lee Harris, Round Rock, Mrs. F. I. White and Miss Wilma Clydell Angell, both of Cameron, Mrs. Verta Rue Brewer, Junction, Utah, Mrs. Mary Alta Pearson, Washington, Utah; one son, Eldridge E. Angell of Cameron; one sister, Mrs. Clara Williamson, Beeville, Texas. Also 13 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren and 2 great great grandchildren.

Grandsons will be pallbearers.

Green's Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

HENDERSON INSTALLED ....

320 Hear Industry Advisor

About 320 Cameron and Central Texas leaders and their wives Tuesday heard Robert B. Seal, Dallas industrial consultant, and saw John B. Henderson, Jr. installed as 1967-68 Cameron Chamber president.

In a three - point advisory to boost Cameron, Seal, a vice president of Dallas' Republic National Bank, suggested:

ONE - Know Cameron's problems and do something about them, noting the current effort to improve the community.

TWO - Explain Cameron's differences and advantages to visitors.

THREE - Sell Cameron's advantages -- "salesmanship never changes" -- he said, noting Mark Anthony's eulogy for Caesar after he was stabbed, forcing his assassins to flee a mob they thought to please.

GREAT TEACHERS

"You are the whosoever," Seal said. And he cited the values of history's three greatest teachers: Socrates, urging "know thyself", Plato, saying "control thyself" and Jesus, preaching "give of thyself."

Seal was introduced by incoming vice president Henry Litzman. The 33rd annual Cameron Chamber banquet was at First Methodist Fellowship Hall.

Henderson, challenging Cameronites to support Chamber efforts further, noted the Chamber's 33 years of activity and said "we feel we merit your co-operation and conference."

Introduced by outgoing President Monroe Fuchs, Henderson said he considered it "a wonderful privilege to live in Cameron, but with privilege comes responsibility.

"We must be willing to join hands" to work together. "Are you really proud of Cameron?" he asked.

Henderson saw the need to support downtown urban renewal, the proposed new St. Edward Hospital as well as the recently new Newton Memorial, a teen center, a downtown theatre, highway and better streets, and "your attitude" toward Cameron.

He urged better relations with farmers and ranchers, citing as example of farm development a $100,000 expansion at Elm Creek Dairy Farm.

He presented Fuchs, outgoing president, with a service plaque as 1966-67 president.

Fuchs thanked particularly, men who made possible a new United Fund in Cameron, James D. Camp and Albert Collins, and Narvie Caperton for his work as president of the new Cameron Industrial Foundation, Inc.

THREE PLAQUES

Each received a commemorative plaque. And Mrs. Barbara Smitherman, secretary-manager, received a gift for her work during the year.

Fuchs also thanked the executive committee, which included Henderson and Eugene Smitherman this year. Smitherman introduced guests from numerous Central Texas cities.

Mrs. W. O. Triggs (see related story) was named 1967 recipient of the McCullin Civic Award. She was announced by the 1966 winner, Miss Mildred Thornton.

New directors elected for three-year terms are: Forrest Sapp, Porter Young, Richard Williams, Lake Stroup, Jr., Jerome Friesenhahn and Litzman.

Fire Destroys Hayes Home Near Cameron

Fire Sunday morning completely destroyed the O. H. Hayes home two miles south of Cameron on the Salem road.

Cause of the two-alarm blaze was undetermined. None of the family was at home when the blaze broke out about 10 a.m. Sunday.

Other fire calls answered by the Cameron fire department during the past week were for scattered grass fires.

'Miss Bess' Is Citizen Of Year

Mrs. W. O. Triggs, long-time advisor to Cameron youth and backer of civic and church activities, was named the outstanding citizen of 1966 in Cameron Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Miss Mildred Thornton, last year's honoree, presented the McCullin Civic Award to Mrs. Triggs, known best as " Miss Bess".

In making the announcement, Miss Thornton described Mrs. Triggs as "constantly in touch with the needy, the sick and the shutins." She added, "She encourages youth in continuing their education, and race, color or creed play no part in her willingness to help young people. For many, many years, she has given herself to this community."

Mrs. Triggs said she was born in Maysfield, "a suburb of Cameron" and added that as a resident of Cameron for most of her life she considered it "the best city of its size in Central Texas." As she accepted the McCullin Award silver loving cup she said "Whatever I have done has been because I love Cameron and her people", and added "Now that it (the award) comes at a time when I might retire, I've got to go on working so I might deserve it."

Among her contributions listed in the award presentation were: member of the board of directors of Cameron Public Library, Friends of the Library vice president, Spiritual Life Leader of the First Methodist Church, teacher of a weekly Bible class in the Cameron Nursing Home, teacher in a Community Serving Class for Negro, American and Anglo women, and work with the Red Cross and Parent-Teachers Association.

New Wildcat Drilling

Milam County early this week had one new wildcat starting and an older wildcat being conditioned and tested in an effort to complete it as a producer.

The new wildcat will be drilled by a Houston operator, Herman C. Page, and will be the No. 1 E. C. Scurlock. Location is on a 99 acre tract in the Benjamin F. Swoop Survey and about 3½ miles southeast of Milano. It is five miles west of Shell Oil Company's Smackover wildcats and some six miles east of the Huber Corporation No. 2 H. H. Coffield Unit, 84 barrel discovery which recently opened Milam County's new Milbur Field.

Page's new wildcat also is offset on the southeast by the Henderson Estate tract which is under lease to Shell, and adjoins the Ray Woods Fee acreage, which is leased to Charles F. Coker of Houston.

Depth of the No. 1 Scurlock will be 3,000 feet or 150 feet into the Midway, a new formation to be tested in Milam County. Rig for the wildcat reportedly was being moved in during the weekend.

In east Milam County drilling crews were preparing to sand-frac the Shell Oil Company No. 2 Adoue Estate at 5,737 - 848 feet in the Austin Chalk, according to a report on Monday.

This wildcat, originally with the Smackover as an objective, was drilled to 14,622 feet, but when drill pipe stuck at 14,260 feet and could not be recovered, was junked in the lower hole and was plugged back to 5,868 feet to test the Austin Chalk.

Trouble with a cement job caused several day's delay, but last week drilling crews perforated between 5,737 - 848 feet at 16 one shot intervals. The hole also was acidized last week and then swabbed. Together with the sand-frac treatment now under way, these efforts may result in the wildcat being completed as an Austin Chalk producer.

ON SAN GABRIEL

Dam Projects Get '68 Nod

Army Engineers announced this week that construction of the Laneport and North Fork dams and reservoirs on the San Gabriel River is expected to begin before the middle of 1968.

Announcement of construction plans for the $32-million Laneport and $14-million North Fork projects was made by Brig. Gen. William Bradley, chief of the Southwestern Division of Army Engineers.

The projects will begin a building era in Central Texas dams to control losses costing, by Corps of Engineers estimates, $1.47 million in damage and erosion per year below Laneport, $572,000 below North Fork and $374,000 below South Fork Reservoir.

The Laneport Reservoir will provide a water supply of almost 15 million gallons per day. North Fork Reservoir will supply more than 12 million gallons per day.

Laneport will also be an important element in the Corps of Engineers' basin-wide flood control plan, helping to control flooding on the main Brazos as well as on the San Gabriel and Little Rivers. The North Fork project will provide flood control benefits on the San Gabriel River in Williamson County upstream of the Laneport Reservoir.

Laneport Reservoir plans call for a total capacity of about 244,200 acre-feet of which 162,700 acre-feet will be for flood control, 37,400 acre-feet for water conservation and 44,00 acre-feet for sedimentation. The area of the lake surface will be about 4,500 acres. In flood control operations the area may increase to 11,000 acres.

The North Fork Reservoir will have a total capacity of about 150,500 acre-feet of which 87,700 acre-feet will be for flood control, 29,100 acre-feet for water conservation and 14,000 acre-feet for sedimentaion. The surface area of the lake at the normal level will be about 1,310 acres and may be in excess of 3,000 acres during flood control operations.

The reservoirs will be constructed by the Corps of Engineers using Federal funds, but the costs of that portion of the reservoirs devoted to water conservation must be paid for by state and local interests.

The Brazos River Authority last year said they would assume the responsibility for paying the costs of the projects' water conservation storage space, which is currently estimated to be $8 million. Payment of these costs would be met from sales of water from the two reservoirs.

Yoemen Win 4th In Hillsboro Relays; Two Firsts Clocked

Yoe cindermen Saturday brought home a team fourth from Hillsboro Relays on the strength of two firsts in 440 and mile events.

Leo Michalka sprinted to the tape with a 51.6 to lead the 440-yard dash field.

And Paul Chandler turned in a 4:51.1 mile to take his second consecutive race, though he was not pushed by the slower field at Hillsboro.

Cameron's Glenn Fogle tossed the discus 136 feet for a third place and ran a 15.6 for a 4th place in the finals of the 120-yard high hurdles.

The mile relay team of Glenn Fogle, Bill Goeke, Wayne Kirk and Leo Michalka ran a 3:41.2 for a fourth place.

Three places were worth 45 points to Cameron in fourth place behind winner McGregor with 82, Teague second with 70, Mansfield 54, Cameron 46, Dawson 44 and host Hillsboro with 32. About 35 schools competed in the meet, most AA.

Cameron goes to Marlin for the Falls Relays Saturday, according to Coach Ken Fuqua. Preliminaries begin at 1 p.m.

Good Friday Services Scheduled March 24

A Good Friday Service 1 to 2 p.m. Friday, March 24, is scheduled by Cameron churches at First Methodist Church. Most Cameron businesses will be closed.

The First Methodist Church itself will hold Maundy Thursday services 7 p.m. Thursday, March 23.

The traditional Sunrise Easter Service at 5:45 a.m. Easter Sunday will be at east side of the Edison Fikes home, Culpepper Addition.

Part of the Yoe High School band will furnish special music, Francis Cox directing. Rev. J. E. Lafferty will present the Easter sermon.

Fire Prevention Program Friday

A demonstration on fire safety will be held for the general public at 7:30 p.m. Friday, March 17 in Methodist Fellowship Hall.

The demonstration is sponsored by the Cameron volunteer fire department. John R. Rauch, instructor with the state fire fighting school at Texas A&M extension school, will conduct the meeting.

Building Sound, Report Confirms

The Cameron Independent School Board Thursday heard a report confirming soundness of the structural condition of Yoe High School and recommendations for improvements from an Austin architectural engineer.

And the Board approved one-year extensions on the two-year contracts of YHS principal Alvis Fuquay and elementary principal C. B. Jones and granted a one-year contract to O. J. Thomas principal Albert Whiteside.

Supt. D. R. Dodson reported that the last order for new windows had been placed with Anderle Lumber Co. for Yoe High School and Ada Henderson School. It will complete installation of new windows throughout both buildings.

Board members approved a textbook purchase list recommended by a faculty committee and a $300 annual raise for Head Coach Ken Fuqua, entering his second year as YHS head coach.

Each member of the School Board received a copy of the nine-page evaluation of 46-year-old Yoe High School, sought by school officials earlier in the year. Number of classrooms in the building and the number needed are quite different, Dodson noted in talk before Cameron Rotarians last week.

STRUCTURALLY SOUND

John Chiles Allen, Austin architect and engineer, found the building "structurally sound and with reasonable maintenance should serve for many years."

After a three-day inspection in February, Allen recommended:

—A two-part program, -- the immediate costing about $10,910 and a long-range plan about $124,300 -- to make interior and exterior improvements and later air conditioning, new floors and ceilings.

ONE--Immediate program:

—Clean and paint up all masonry work, both brick and stone.

—Waterproof brick and stone with clear silicone, done each 5 years.

—Replace remaining wood windows.

—Replace loose plaster, treat for termites.

—Paint various metal doors and frames.

—Repair or replace classroom doors, toilet partitions.

—Repair or replace all finish hardware.

—Relocate gaslines to science lab.

TWO--Long-range Program:

—Air conditioning of classrooms, an estimated $33,000 to $55,000 project, depending upon what type of equipment is used.

—Conversion of auditorium and visual education space to classrooms.

—Additional toilet facilities on second floor.

—Suspended ceilings in corridors and "possibly in classrooms."

—New vinyl-asbestos tile floors over light-weight concrete leveling course.

—New lighting system, using fluorescent troffer lights installed with suspended accoustical ceiling.

—Attic-space insulation if building is to be air conditioned.

—Consideration of eliminating the parapet wall and extending the roofing out over all stone cornices.

The building, designed by architect C. H. Page and built in 1920, has a net usable floor space on three floors of 27,160 feet.

Allen and Paul C. Crews, also of Austin, studied the building February 24, 25 and 26.

"It is the conclusion of the writer (Allen) that the structure of the building is in excellent condition and with reasonable maintenance should last almost indefinitely," the report says.

PROBLEM AREAS

The report noted problem areas of the building, cited for repair or replacement in the "immediate program" costing an estimated $10,910.

The report includes a scale drawing of each floor of the building, designating areas needing improvement or new materials.

No action was taken by the CISD board, Dodson told The Herald. Each board member is reviewing the report. Board members until the new trustee year begins April 15 are: C. R. Law, president; M. C. Duncum, vice president; Forrest Sapp, secretary; Lane Horstmann, Charles McDermott, Barbee Barrett and Calvin Cobb, trustees.

Law early in the year announced he would not seek re-election while Sapp and McDermott and Dr. John L. Martin, chiropractor, have filed for re-election or election.

The Board has scheduled a called meeting for March 28 to continue work on a board policy program and other basic work.

Police Investigating Prowler Reports

Calls Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights alerted city police and Sheriff Carl Black to suspected prowlers in the northeast residential section of Cameron.

City police investigated calls on North Jackson, 9th Street, North Houston, North Lamar and East 13th Street during the weekend. Sheriff Black said he had also investigated complaints in the 9th Street and North Jackson area but had not found any attempts to enter homes.

A series of burglaries which plagued police several weeks ago ended with the arrest of Jessie Ray Owens, 19, on March 3.

City police said a house at 802 East 13th had been broken into and an Army cot and bed roll were taken. Cral Rose, owner of the house, had been out of town, however, and did not know how long the items had been missing.

City police also investigated an attempted entry about midnight Friday at a house in the 1400 block of North Houston.

Butterscotch, as typical of Scotland as plaids and bagpipes, takes a quick trip around the world to join forces with crushed pineapple in an exotic dessert sauce. This meeting of West and East produces a sauce of mellow color and flavor that glamorizes ice cream or cake. Thanks to butterscotch flavored morsels, the sauce can be made in a few minutes and, once made, it keeps well in the refrigerator.

Butterscotch Pineapple Skillet Sauce

2 tablespoons butter
1 6-ounce package (1 cup) butterscotch morsels

Put crushed pineapple with syrup into saucepan. Add butter and bring to a boil, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat; simmer 5 minutes. Remove from heat. Add butterscotch morsels and stir until melted.

YIELD: Approximately 1⅓ cups.

NOTE: If sauce is chilled in refrigerator, reheat over low heat before serving.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

Fishermen in the Texas Panhandle long have boasted that they are right in the middle of the best fishing in the world—namely halfway between the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Now, however, fishing is a little closer to home.

Today, one of the newest and most interesting lakes in Texas is in the process of filling. Lake Meredith is created by the Sanford (no kin) Dam across the Canadian River, only a few miles out of Borger.

It is a new glory for this city, which first became famous something like 40 years ago with the discovery of oil.

At that time and during the intervening years the Canadian River, which cuts across the Panhandle north of Amarillo, was mostly a dusty stream that went wild with torrential rains and flooded its valley. Then came the wind and sun . . . and the river dried up again in spots.

Now that has been changed!

After years of talk and planning and the expenditure of almost a hundred million dollars, Lake Meredith has been completed and the stored water will be carried by a 35 mile aqueduct to serve the nearby cities of Borger and Pampa.

Another aqueduct carries the water to Amarillo and a half-dozen other high-plains cities, which for years have depended entirely upon underground water for domestic purposes and agriculture.

Located in Hutchinson County, Lake Meredith will cover slightly under 44,000 surface acres. It will be 20 miles long when filled.

Sanford Dam was constructed by the Bureau of Reclamation, after years of research and survey, both by the government and by private agencies.

This lake presented some major problems because much of the reservoir site was in the heart of a major natural gas field.

Rockdalian, 78, Dies In Collision At US 77 Intersection

One man was killed and two others were injuried in accidents last week in Milam County.

Simon Cherry, 78, of Rockdale died late Wednesday night, March 8, from injuries suffered in a near head-on collision at the intersection of US77 and US79, 1 mile north of Rockdale. The accident occurred about 9 a.m. Wednesday morning.

Investigating officer Leroy Broadus said Cherry attempted a left turn into the path of Warren L. Bounds, 55, of Milano. Bounds was driving a 1966 Ford pickup and Cherry was driving a 1956 Plymouth.

Both men were treated at Richards Clinic in Rockdale and Cherry was transferred to the VA Hospital in Temple where he died that night.

Daniel Bird, a passenger in a Texas Highway Dept. pickup driven by Donald Oliver of Hearne, was injured in an accident about 8:10 a.m. Friday. He was taken to a Hearne hospital, according to Broadus.

The Highway Dept. pickup and a 1957 Dodge truck driven by Christino Guerra of Bryan, collided in a construction zone 2 miles south of Milano.

A third accident at 1:45 p.m. Friday occurred when Theodore Burnett of Cameron made a left turn from US77 onto FM 2095 as a second car was attempting to pass. There were no serious injuries.

Isaac Mayeaux of Shreveport, La. was charged with improper passing.

Easy on the hostess, elegant for the guests, is this eye-appealing salad for Spring luncheons. Using the Washington apple variety preferred for all fresh and molded salads, the Davy Jones Salad is a neat and Lenten-wise catch of prawns, avocado, celery, and fresh apple chunks, stowed in crackling-crisp Washington Red Delicious apple boats. Topped with a mayonnaise-sour cream dressing flavored with sherry and basil, this magic medley of colors and flavors promises a successful launching of your Spring luncheon.

Salad:	Dressing:
4 Washington Delicious apples	6 tbsp. mayonnaise
lemon juice	6 tbsp. sour cream
½ lb. cooked prawns or shrimp	1 tbsp. finely-cut onion
¾ cup sliced celery	1 tbsp. finely-cut parsley
¾ cup diced avocado	sherry
1 tbsp. lemon juice	sweet basil, salt

Cut tops from apples, then hollow out to make cups about ⅜ inch thick. Brush top edge and inside walls lightly with lemon juice. Dice unpeeled tops of apples and apple removed from cups. Reserving one or two prawns to garnish each cup, dice remaining prawns. Add to diced apple along with celery, avocado and one tbsp. lemon juice. Mix lightly and fill cups. Blend mayonnaise and sour cream. Add onion, parsley, and sherry (as desired, to thin); then season to taste with a touch of rubbed sweet basil and salt. Serves 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lyle Clements

Ceremony In Kansas Unites Miss Elder, Marvin Clements

Faye Adrienne Elder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Elder of Salina, Kansas, and granddaughter of Mrs. Grady Little, Cameron, and Sp-4 Marvin Lyle Clements, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Clements, also of Salina, were married February 12 at the First Methodist Church, Salina.

The bride's floor-length gown of satin and Chantilly lace was made by her mother. A petal crown accented with pearls held her elbow-length veil of silk illusion made by the bridegroom's mother. She carried a colonial bouquet of white Phalaenopsis orchids and white Butterfly roses.

Miss Kathy Reed of Salina was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lynne and Carol Elder, sisters of the bride. Miss Reed wore a street-length gown of gold satin with matching hat, veil and muff. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns in loden green. They carried crescent bouquets of carnations.

Candlelighters were Ruth Clements, sister of the groom and Bryan Elder, the bride's brother.

Larry Watkins served as best man and groomsmen were Grady Elder, brother of the bride, and Loren Bogart, all of Salina.

She stressed simplicity and harmony to attain beauty. She also, with the help of other members, offered constructive criticism on the beautiful horizontal design arrangement by Mrs. W. E. Falkner.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

—By—

J. D. MOORE

By J. D. Moore

Exchange of ideas has been an American way of life. For the past three years, cold temperatures have been a threat to fruit trees in this area. For example, on March 24, 1966, the temperature was 30 degrees at 6 a.m., as reported by Mr. Parma here in Cameron. March of 1965 was a very cold month with the following readings: March 19, 26 degrees; March 20, 23 degrees; and March 21, 28 degrees. Most of our fruit trees are in bloom by March 20. Just how much cold temperatures affect fruit blooms depends on several growth factors. Usually when temperatures drop below 30 degrees, appreciable cold damage occurs. According to records, March 1964 was a severely cold month and much fruit was lost.

For the past three years the county agent has covered two favorite peach trees with large sheets of plastic material during the latter part of March when temperatures dropped to 30 degrees. Plastic covers fastened to lower limbs with clothes pins would be practical with two or three trees. Although we have no research to justify this practice, it might help prevent cold damage.

With larger orchards, "smoke smudges" are recommended. Oil companies have developed a slow burning block smudge a little larger than a brick. The smudge block may be ignited and one placed under each tree. The slow burning material prevents or lowers cold damage. Old automobile tires or wood are used to form smoke smudges in commercial orchards.

Plant propagation is done by cuttings, budding and grafting, layers, runners, etc. Inlay grafting is the usual practice to start in early April. Patch budding and T-budding cannot be done until the bark slips on trees, which is after April 1. "Chip budding" is a method that can be done during March because the bark does not have to "slip" in order to chip bud. Chip budding offers a longer period of time for this practice because of the procedure. Anyone interested in learning any of the procedures may contact the county agent.

Competition For Workers Forcing Farmers To Mechanize, Automate

Competition for efficient workers in our present day society is forcing more farmers to mechanize and automate more and more of their productive processes.

The further farmers go with mechanization and automation, the greater the skill required of workers who run the machines and, subsequently, the greater the competition for effective workers, says W. S. Allen, Extension agricultural engineer, Texas A&M University.

This combination of ever-increasing investment in productive equipment and workers makes it harder and harder for every farmer to own his own machines and keep his individual full-time workers, points out the engineer. This situation is forcing an increasing number of farm jobs to be done by commercial hire, or automatic equipment.

Such an arrangement can allow many part-time farmers to continue a profitable farm enterprise and allow some full-time farmers to concentrate on more complete management of their main enterprise, he adds.

However, the effective use of commercial hire for farm machines cannot happen without preplanning of jobs and job requirements by both the farmer and the commercial agent, cautions Allen. Such a system cannot be turned on and off like a light switch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown of Marble Falls visited relatives Thursday and were over-night guests of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Burnett.

Mrs. Frank Black is a patient in Newton Hospital. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weidner of New Braunfels are here visiting her.

For Broader Publication

House Bill 343, by State Reps. Jack Hawkins and Bill Rapp, will help reduce overstuffed and unread bulletin boards, like the one in the first-floor hallway of Milam Courthouse.

This bill is aimed at requiring publication in the local newspaper of sales of real estate under deeds of trust.

The archaic method of posting such notices on bulletin boards or other "public places" continues under the present law.

It was effective when people congregater in courthouses and other "public places" to view news posted for their readership. But how often does the average person go by a courthouse bullctin board? Once or twice a year? And does he read the posted notices then?

The proposed publication law would provide three weeks notice to the property owner, who might be able to make up delinquent payment . . . .

It would increase the sale price of the property by providing a bidding basis more toward the property's true value . . . .

It would help protect the property owner, as all legitimate lending institutions would advise, from unscrupulous lenders who are assisted by such limited "publication".

Newspapers always are accused of personal profit motive when they advocate passage of such legislation. But before one really believes that, he should look at the average bulletin board in any Texas Courthouse.

And if he decides it is a good idea that newspapers are the place for this type of public notice, along with others, he should write Rep. Milton Schiller, State Capitol, Austin, while House Bill 343 is in committee.

Newspapers were begun a couple hundred years ago to print public notices, ship sailings and it is just as essential a service as it was two hundred years ago.

A Success In Track . . .

Cameron's tracksters are placing high in AA competition in Relay competition around the state, winning a fourth at Hillsboro last week.

Yoe High School dropped baseball a few seasons ago so track could be more highly developed.

And it looks like a few individual stars are going to bring titles home regularly throughout the season.

It will be interesting to watch how the season progresses for youngsters like Paul Chandler and Leo Michalka who paced the mile and quarter-mile fields last week. Chandler also won his AA final mile at Blinn Relays and finished sixth as a sophomore miler in State AA last year.

It is good to see a decision meant to improve a program, this one a sports decision, actually work.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

The Ambassador and the Baby

Not long ago, in an American courtroom, a young woman filed a paternity suit against the ambassador of a foreign power. She said that she was expecting a baby, that the ambassador was the baby's father, and that he ought to start paying some bills.

But the court refused to hear the woman's complaint. The judge pointed out that any proceedings against the ambassador would violate his right to diplomatic immunity.

Does a foreign ambassador live a charmed life in this country, safe from punishment by our courts? Could he even commit murder and get away with it? Does diplomatic immunity allow diplomatic impunity?

Generally speaking, that is indeed the situation. He is not subject to the jurisdiction of either our criminal or our civil courts. In fact, the immunity of an ambassador is so broad that it also covers his family, his aides, and —to some degree—even his domestic help.

The reason is both simple and powerful:

We keep hands off the ambassadors of other countries so they will keep hands off ours. That way, both sides benefit. For the work of an ambassador may be seriously hampered if he (or those close to him) could be harassed by charges and claims that might or might not be justified.

And experience has shown that by and large, despite their immunity, diplomatic personnel don't just run wild. As a practical matter, there are powerful restraints tending to keep them in line.

For one thing, an ambassador's home office is not likely to look with favor on any mischief-making. An envoy who, for instance, won't pay his grocery bills is certainly not winning friends for the country he represents.

For another thing, our State Department may take the initiative by lodging a complaint with his government. If that does not help, we may also declare him "persona non grata" and ship him back home.

Furthermore, as a man of stature, an ambassador may feel a strong sense of personal responsibility. He may, for example, take out liability insurance to compensate possible victims of his bad driving.

In any event, the basic concept of diplomatic immunity has proven so useful that it is surely here to stay. It is recognized by every country on earth. And its roots go back to the very dawn of history.

Legislature Gets Down To Business

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN

Now that virtually all the bill-introducing has been done, Texas Legislators can get down to the business of thrashing out laws.

Under the State Constitution and the rules of each house, a four-fifths vote must be obtained for a bill to be introduced in either house after the first 60 days of the session. That deadline came at the end of last week.

As the 60-day deadline approached, the House had about 1,200 bills on file. Senate had another 500 bills. In addition to these each house has a number of resolutions to consider.

Subject matter ranges from minor local measures to proposals for sweeping overall changes in the constitution and state agencies.

That 60-day deadline is a magic number in the Senate for another reason, too. A four-fifths vote in the upper chamber is necessary in order to bring up a bill for final action before the first 60 days have elapsed.

Actually, the House is similarly restricted, but the members voted to suspend that rule early in the session.

NEW BOARD PROPOSED - In order to mobilize Texas' vast agricultural resources another board is proposed. It would be known as the Texas Agricultural Development Board.

Noting that Texas is falling behind in the relative growth of one of its key industries, the interim House Study Committee suggests that a 15-member board representative of all areas of the state be appointed by the Governor.

Its duties would be to inventory agricultural assets and needs, establish goals for the industry, prepare an agricultural market program, develop new ways of converting raw agricultural products into marketable items and perform other similar activities designed to boost agriculture in the state.

TAX HEARINGS ON - Major portions of the Governor's $187,300,000 tax program came under heavy fire at initial House revenue and tax committee hearings. Industry spokesmen suggested a general sales tax hike as preferable.

Gas industry representatives opposed the proposal to increase the natural gas production tax from seven to eight percent.

Breweries objected to beer being placed under the general sales tax.

Surprisingly, corporations did not speak out against the recommended increase in the corporate franchise tax rate (from $2.25 to $3 per $1,000 on capital and surplus with a gradually decreasing levy on debt).

Opposition to boosting the gasoline tax from five to six cents a gallon will come at a second hearing set for March 14.

Another big date will be March 21 when the controversial liquor-by-the-drink bill comes up for tax committee review.

A tipoff to opposition strategy was given by William H. Abington of Texas Midcontinent Oil and Gas Association when he suggested the Legislature might find its revenue-raising job easier by adjusting the sales tax.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith says he favors the sales tax approach if new money must be found. He still insists that the budget can be balanced without any new taxation.

Smith indicated that the optional one percent city sales tax bill already passed by the House will be okayed by the Senate.

REDISTRICTING "WORSE" - Redistricting is going to be a bigger headache this year than in 1965. So predicts House Speaker Ben Barnes after studying legislative and congressional reapportionment problems.

Some Texas congressmen reportedly are upset. Rep. Gus Mutscher, Brenham, chairman of House district committee, Sen. J. P. Word of Meridian, his Senate counterpart, and Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall visited Washington over the weekend to talk with congressmen and swap ideas.

Numerous redistricting bills are in the hopper.

NEW GOVERNOR - Texas will have a "new" governor on March 28. On that date Sen. William Patman of Ganado takes his turn as acting chief executive.

Patman is president pro tempore of the Senate. Each holder of that office traditionally serves as "Governor For A Day" while both the governor and lieutenant governor are out of the state.

Citizens from Patman's 14-county 18th district will be honor guests for the occasion. They will attend an all-day reception in the governor's office and take special tours of the governor's mansion and capitol complex. Patman will sign proclamations, honorary appointments and bills.

An exhibit by artists from Patman's district will be displayed in the capitol on that date.

Recalling that the first seat of Texas government was at Washington-on-the-Brazos (in Patman's district), a special display of historical items from the area also will be set up. These will be in the State Library and Archives Building.

SCHOOL TESTING - This spring approximately 80,000 seniors in 296 high schools in 128 school districts will be given an opportunity by the state to analyze critically and constructively their schools and their teachers.

Public School Education Committee is sponsoring the unique questionnaires. Purpose is to measure what the students have learned and how well they can use their knowledge.

Results of the study will be related to a massive data-gathering project to give a full picture of the state's public school education system.

MANSION GROUNDS - Mrs. John Connally has unveiled a model representing detailed plans for landscaping and beautifying the grounds of the Governor's Mansion.

She used the unveiling to launch a statewide fund-raising project, in coordination with the new Texas Fine Arts Commission and the Texas Garden Clubs. Project is to be financed completely by donations.

Plans for the habilitation of the grounds were drawn up by Joe Lambert of Dallas. Specifications are being drafted by the State Building Commission. Construction is to begin this summer.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editar:

According to an article I read in a copy of a newspaper a March wind blew through a hole in my back screen door, sure, I know the screen ought to be fixed, but first things first — first the back step ought to be fixed, because that loose board's what caused me to stumble and push a hole in the screen in the first place, and the reason the board is loose is because I couldn't find my hammer, and the reason I didn't find my hammer was because there wasn't any use wasting all day looking for it, I'm out of nails anyway, which proves there may not be an easy answer to a lot of things, whether it's Viet Nam or a hole in my back screen door; so, to get on with this sentence, according to this article in this newspaper which you might say had been carefully screened, the United States needs to pay more attention to its image throughout the world.

"The image we create in the minds of the peoples of the rest of the world is vitally important to our success in maintaining world leadership," the article went on.

I had not paid much attention to this matter before and personally have never been very much interested in leading the world, not in view of where it seems to be going at the moment, but after giving it some thought I can see some advantage in maintaining the proper image abroad.

For example, just this morning I was asked to dig some holes and put in a few posts where the garden fence has fallen over but I declined on the ground it would destroy America's agricultural image abroad.

"What do you mean?" I was asked, not exactly pleasantly.

"What's our present image?" I asked, and went ahead to explain it's mechanized. "Every other nation on earth knows American farming is mechanized, we do everything mechanically. You're not going to catch me tarnishing our international image by picking up a post hole digger and digging by hand. What do you think it would do to our position of world leadership?"

"You could do it after dark."

"And increase the credibility gap? There's too much deception and dishonesty in the world already."

I got tired of arguing and moved out of ear range. There are some things some people will never understand. The world is more complicated than you think.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

SOIL & WATER DISTRICTS

More than 95 percent of all the privately owned farm and ranch land in the United States is included in one or more of the nation's 2,995 soil and water conservation districts. The districts are found in every state and Puerto Rico and each has a working agreeemt with the USDA. They play a major role in soil and water conservation programs and activities.

Anderson Picked For UT Science Symposium

Richard Anderson, Yoe High School honor student and Mr. Fred Johns, Yoe Science teacher have been selected to attend a nuclear science symposium at the University of Texas June 11 - 14.

The symposium will be sponsored by the University of Texas and the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation. Expenses for both persons will be paid by Texas Power & Light Company, a member of TAERF.

D. R. Dodson, superintendent of schools, announced the names of the two attendees. They will join some 500 other honor students and teachers from over the State of Texas.

Ten investor-owned electric companies in Texas, including Texas Power & Light Company, are members of TAERF. The organization is co-sponsoring with the General Atomic Division of General Dynamics Corporation, a program of controlled nuclear fusion research for the generation of electric power with the least possible hazards of radiation and poisonous wastes.

Fish Abundant in Texas

Texas has something like 100 species of fresh water fish. However, only a dozen are of interest to fishermen. Mainly they are bass with catfish, crappie and bream in about that order.

HOSANNA

Palm Sunday! After services, I lingered for a moment in the sanctuary. The sun patterned the floor with gold and stippled the palms by the altar. A quiet stillness held me and for an instant it seemed I saw a crowd waving branches and heard them shouting "Hosanna to the Son of David; Hosanna in the highest."

And Jesus came, riding through the tumult of rejoicing. He had been in Galilee making blind men see, and lame ones walk, lifting up the dead and quickening men's hearts to goodness with his teachings. Many voices sang his praise, yet in a few short days, their screams would swell a cry of "crucify Him."

How could they, we wonder? How could anyone be blind to the goodness of this man, the rightness of His Word?

And still today, as we turn away from the hungry, the poor, and disregard the needs of our fellowman; we just as surely add our voices to that cry.

R'dale Srs. Win Alcoa Grants; Barbara Jackson Is Alternate

Rockdale High School seniors Marshall Enquist and Susan Curtis have been selected to receive the 1967 Rockdale Works Alcoa Foundation Scholarships. Two $3,000 scholarships are awarded annually to sons and daughters of Rockdale Works employees.

Marshall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Enquist of Tanglewood. Mr. Enquist is a foreman in the carbon plant. Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton B. Curtis of Rockdale. Mr. Curtis is a head tapper-carbon changer in the potrooms. Mrs. Curtis is employed at The Cameron Herald.

Selections were made by the Rockdale Works Alcoa Foundation Selection Board made up of area school superintendents. H. D. Maxwell, Superintendent of Milam County Schools, is chairman of the Board.

The Board also named Barbara L. Jackson, a Yoe High School senior, as first alternate and Bette S. Brown, senior at Lexington High School, as second alternate. In all, 33 students were in competition for the scholarships.

In addition to the $3,000 to each individual winner, the Alcoa Foundation awards the college attended by each winner an unrestricted grant-in-aid of $1,000.

Marshall, who plans to attend Southwestern University, will study liberal arts as required for pre-law. A member of the National Honor Society, Marshall also belongs to the Boy Scouts of America Order of the Arrow. He has been a member of the track team and the Spanish Club. Recently Marshall wrote the prize winning essay in a Lions Club Essay Contest on the subject, "Peace is Attainable."

Planning to enroll at The University of Texas to study speech and history, Susan is also a member of the National Honor Society.

For the past five years she has been a member of the Methodist Youth Fellowship and has served as secretary-treasurer. Susan has been a 4-H Club participant and a member of the Spanish Club.

In addition to Mr. Maxwell, members of the Selection Board include: J. M. Moorman, Rockdale; A. P. Kleinschmidt, Lexington; F. G. Kemble, Thorndale; Cecil Brown, Caldwell; A. K. McCown, Thrall; D. R. Dodson, Cameron; and R. L. Porter, Milano, all superintendents of schools.

The Rockdale Works Alcoa Foundation Scholarship Sponsoring Committee is composed of Oxsheer Smith, President of Citizens National Bank of Cameron; George Bredt, Bredt Insurance, Rockdale; Carlos Parker, President of First Taylor Bank, Taylor; Thorndale Chevrolet dealer C. A. Wuensche; and G. W. Hutton, Rockdale Works administrative manager.

To date, 16 scholarships have been awarded by The Alcoa Foundation to sons and daughters of Rockdale Works employees. Currently five winners from previous years are attending college on the scholarships: Glory Krchnak Novosad and Jan Whitmire attend The University of Texas; Mary Aanstoos attends Rice; Cheryl Botts is a Howard Payne Freshman; and Barbara Gerland is a student at Blinn College.

First Baptist Church To Host Area Stewardship Conference

Baptist church leaders in Milam County area will co-sponsor with the Stewardship Division of the 1.8 million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas one of more than 100 conferences across the state introducing a 1967 Christian concept dealing with total stewardship from a family point of view, according to the Baptist General Convention.

Included in the new approach is a money management emphasis not only on what the family gives, but the wise use of what is kept.

Leadership and families of churches in Milam Baptist Association, comprised of approximately 4,200 members from some 46 churches in the Cameron-Rockdale area, have been invited to attend the Monday (March 20) conference at 7 p.m. in First Baptist Church, Cameron. Rev. James E. Lafferty is pastor of the host church.

Overall purpose of the sessions is to introduce an effective approach for churches to present 1967 materials featuring "a Christian family witnessing to its faith."

On a compact program with local, area and state Baptist convention leaders, guest speaker for the event will be Dr. J. W. Ousley of Baylor University in Waco.

Two staff members of the BGCT Stewardship Division - Douglas Brown and W. F. Vanderburg, both of Dallas - and administrative leaders of Milam association also are scheduled to lead in the meeting, which includes two 7-8 p.m. conferences.

The 1967 "family witness" materials will be introduced in a meeting of all pastors, music and education directors and other staff members in the church leadership conference. This period will be given to a study of church budgets, money management and tithes, will-making and estate planning.

In a simultaneous session, individuals and family groups will examine the matter of Christian witness in spending, giving and ownership. Rev. J. O. Morman of Rockdale, superintendent of associational missions and Rev. N. A. Mills, pastor of Meadowbrook Baptist Church in Rockdale and associational moderator, will preside.

Major thrusts of the conferences will come in a joint worhsip service at 8 p.m. with presentation of the new materials and showing of a noted convention filmstrip "The Money Trap." Dr. Ousley's special message, "The Family Bearing Witness to Its Faith," will conclude the conference.

IRS Questions

Q - Is the $3 a month I pay for supplementary medicare insurance deductible?

A - Yes, if you itemize and deduct medical expenses, this is considered an allowable medical expense along with other premiums paid for hospital and medical insurance.

Q - I took a net loss of more than $1,000 on some stock I sold last year. Since I can only deduct $1,000 of the loss on my 1966 return, do I lose the rest of it?

A - No, the excess over $1,000 may be carried over to future tax years.

Q - I just started work last year and am still waiting for a Social Security Number. What should I do about my return?

A - If you have not received your number by the filing deadline, send in your return without it. Indicate that you have applied for the number in the box where it should be entered.

Q - I support my mother's brother but my friends tell me I can't claim him as a dependent since he does not live with us. Is that right?

A - A person does not have to be a member of your household to be claimed as a dependent if he is closely related to you. The law considers an uncle to be a close relation. Therefore, he is not required to be a member of your household.

Remember that other requirements for a dependency claim must be met, too. These are the support test, gross income test, citizenship or residence test, and the joint return test. They are all explained in the 1040 instruction booklet.

Q - My wife is filing her own return. Can I still claim her as a dependent?

a - No. When she files her own return, she takes her own exemption. You may not take an exemption for her unless you file jointly.

Remember that when separate returns are filed, each must handle his deductions the same way. If one itemizes so must the other. If standard deductions are used, both must use the same type, either the 10 percent or the minimum. The use of the 10 percent standard deduction by one spouse obligates the other to do so.

Also, be sure to use the tax table or rate schedule for married couples filing separately. An error frequently made on separate returns is to compute the tax using the rates for married couples filing jointly.

Q - I received a sizeable amount of severance pay last year. Is that taxable?

A - Yes it is. However, if this pay abnormally boosted your income for the year, then you may be able to reduce your taxes by taking advantage of income averaging. Drop a post card to your local IRS office and ask for Schedule G of Form 1040 to get full details.

Q - Where should I send my return?

A - Page 10 of the 1040 instruction booklet and page 8 of the 1040A instructions show where you should send your return.

Q - Is a prize considered income?

A - Yes it is. If the prize is not cash but is merchandise instead, use the fair market value at the time received as the amount to report on your return.

Q - I moved last year because I changed jobs. Can I take any deduction for my moving expenses?

A - You may be able to deduct some of these expenses if certain conditions are met. The rules for claiming these expenses are covered in the 1040 instructions.

A copy of Form 3903, which may be obtained by dropping a post card to your local IRS office, has further information on this deduction. It must be filed with your 1040 if you are qualified to claim this deduction.

Q - From time to time I help my married daughter out by making payments on their mortgage. Can I deduct these payments as contributions or take a deduction for the tax and interest portion of the payment?

A No. Gifts to individuals are not considered charitable deductions and only the person legally responsible for making the mortgage payments is allowed to take the interest deductions permitted.

Q - Does a common law marriage entitle you to file a joint return?

A - If you are living together in a common law marriage which is recognized by the state where it was entered into, you may file a joint return.

Q - I'm 65 but my wife is not. Does that mean her medical expenses are subject to the 3 percent limitation?

A - No. When one spouse is 65, the qualifying medical expenses of both spouses are fully deductible.

Q - Why isn't income tax withheld from farm wages? They withhold for Social Security?

A - The law does not require employers to withhold income taxes for most agricultural workers. These workers should make quarterly payments of estimated tax.

Q - Do I have to report nontaxable dividends or can I forget them like I do my Social Security benefits?

A - Income from non-taxable dividends is not subject to income tax. However, for reporting purposes, such income is inserted on lines 1a and 1d, Part II, page 2, Form 1040 where, as a result of the computation of taxable dividends, they are excluded from income.

Amounts received as "dividends" from life insurance policies are not to be included with non-taxable dividends. These amounts normally are considered returns of premiums and should not be reported.
